

Communicators for Women Religious Conference Scholarship Application Process

All applicants must be a member in good standing. Only current CWR members may apply for scholarship funds. If you are not a current member, please go to c4wr.org to join before continuing with the application process. If you have been a recipient of an award, we ask that you not apply for the next two years to give other members a chance. Applicants who have not been granted a scholarship may apply again.

All applicants must include a Letter of Recommendation. The letter should come from the applicant's supervisor or leadership and address: 1) the applicant's job responsibilities and professional contributions; 2) indicate the support of the supervisor/leadership with regard to having the applicant attend the conference; and 3) explain the financial need.

All applicants must include an essay (500 words maximum) outlining the reason they wish to attend the conference and how it will benefit them both personally and professionally. If actively involved in CWR, please indicate that involvement.

Application form is attached. Please complete, print, and mail with your documents.

The recipient(s) will receive a complimentary full conference registration and one (1) night in the designated conference hotel, which will be placed on the CWR master bill. No reimbursement of any other expenses will be provided.

Applications must be received by April 15, 2017.
